Remembering is an annual program celebrating Black History and was inspired by The MAAFA Suite – which commemorates the middle passage journey of African people bound for enslavement in the Americas – and the teachings of Bishop Rev. Dr. Johnny Ray Youngblood. Set to music by John Williams, Philip Hamilton and BeBe Winans, Remembering has lighting design by Gregory L. Dratva, costumes by Hopie Lynn Burrows, spoken word by multimedia artists Talu Green, Gha'il Rhodes Benjamin, Theara Ward, and Shirley Black Brown-Coward, and imagery by Tom Feelings.

Tickets $40-$100 and can be purchased by emailing remembering@creativeoutlet.org
