Baryshnikov Arts Center presents the world premiere of Kota Yamazaki's "Darkness Odyssey Part 2: I or Hallucination."

Philosophy, dance, and folklore merge in Bessie Award-winning choreographer Kota Yamazaki's latest work inspired by French writers Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari, butoh pioneer Tatsumi Hijikata's notion of a "dance of darkness," and Japan's Goze music tradition. Darkness Odyssey Part 2: I or Hallucination explores the fragile body, the vaporizing body, and the body as an absorbing force.

The choreographer performs with dancers Julian Barnett, Raja Feather Kelly, Joanna Kotze, and Mina Nishimura to an original score by Kenta Nagai and lighting by Thomas Dunn.
