Free the Voice with Vocalist Odeya Nini

This LUDUS Master Class is dedicated to Vocal Expression, sensing the voice, feeling and understanding the physicality of sound, freeing our minds of preconceived ideas of song, and realizing the transformational healing effects we have on ourselves and others when we use our voice with intention and love. Both through introspective work and outward playfulness, we will explore the voice as an instrument that radiates from the imagination, body, and movement, not limited to conventions of language, but rather able to convey myriad forms of communication.

Come play, shift, listen, explore and Free The Voice!
