Premiered for the 50th anniversary of the Prix de Lausanne, Le Prix offers an intimate look at four talented young dancers from around the world as they prepare for one of the world's most prestigious dance competitions—where the careers of countless star dancers are born. At just 16 to 18 years old, Romina, Julien, Abril, and Darrion have dedicated years of hard work and relentless training for this pivotal moment, knowing that stepping onto this stage is more than an honor—it's a rare gateway to the world's most esteemed ballet schools and companies. With the highest stakes and immense challenges, Le Prix captures their passion, discipline, and determination as they confront doubt and exhaustion to seize a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity on the transformative stage of the Prix de Lausanne. The screening will be followed by a panel discussion with Stella Abrera, Chun Wai Chan, Younjae Park, Paloma Livellara and Natalie Steele, moderated by Kathryn Bradney.
