The American Modern Opera Company (AMOC*) embarks on its most significant artistic endeavor to date—the Run AMOC* Festival at Summer for the City—with a bold slate of opera, dance, and music, creating an immersive landscape of art that redefines the festival experience. On July 9 and 10, enjoy the New York premiere of Dance in the Park, a tender, joyful, and fiercely experimental performance featuring dancers Julia Eichten and Bret Easterling. With music by Strauss and Juniper, this piece embraces phases, geographies, and dreams—glitching between dimensions to celebrate the evolution of movement.
