BodyStories: Teresa Fellion Dance is excited to announce our upcoming Spring Class Series! Our Spring Class Series will be hosted at our Middlebrook Arts Research + Residency Center in Upstate New York, and will start this May. We have some awesome open level classes for all adults age 16+ to choose from, and they are for every body! Classes will be taught by Teresa Fellion including a guest contemporary class with Melissa Riker, and we would love for you to come by and dance with us!

May 9, 7pm-8pm : ZumbaFusion

May 16, 7pm-8pm : Swinging Into Spring

May 23, 7pm-8pm : Modern in Motion

May 27, 6:30pm-7:30pm: Contemporary Guest Class from Melissa Riker

Each class will be offered on a "pay what you can", sliding scale available, with a suggested donation of $12. It's preferable that you register in advance by email but drop ins are possible with proof of vaccination and arriving 5 minutes early to fill out a form. Classes will be offered hybrid, both in-person and virtually. In-person participants are required to show proof of vaccination. Masks are welcomed but not required with proof of vaccination.

To register or for more information please email us at education@bodystoriesfellion.org! You can also register via this registration form including waiver, payment, and vaccination information:
