Mignolo Dance is hosting their 4th annual summer dance intensive this August at Mignolo Arts Center, Metuchen, NJ! This intensive is geared toward professional and pre-professional dancers. For the first time ever, we have a small number of scholarships available this year. To apply for a scholarship, please email info@mignolo.dance with a video link that you feel best represents you as a dancer, and a short paragraph telling us why you would like to attend our intensive and how a scholarship would benefit you.

The 2023 intensive will culminate in a final showing where dancers will be invited to perform phrases they learned in class as well as a brand new mignolo creation. Faculty members will also be invited to perform in the showing. For more information and registration, please visit our website. Early-Bird pricing available through June 1st!
