Mixtures
 Artistic Creation Program

Tuesday May 3rd, 7:30pm
 Teatro SEA 07 Suffolk St #202, NYC

Aileen Bassis

Mixtures is a collaborative program between Spanish and American artists based in NYC that work in different fields. The main goal is to create works that combine two artistic disciplines in order to generate new work dynamics and promote cultural exchange. The participating artists have been working for 3 months creating genuine works mixing different disciplines.

During the event, 3 exclusive works combining dance, poetry, film and photography will be presented in Teatro SEA on Tuesday May 3rd 7:30pm.

After there will be a Q&A conversation about the creation process, highlighting the challenges faced when working mixing different fields and cultures.
