Mayta fusion dance A local project based dance company stationed in Poughkeepsie, NY, Mayta Fusion dance weaves multicultural forms of movement together to foster global narratives and shine a spotlight on our universality and diversity. To use dance as a tool to bring awareness of our oneness, our connectedness, our humanity, our history, our cultures, our equality, and the beauty of the world through performances, choreography, workshops, talks and dance events. To create meaningful, high-quality choreographies in a multidisciplinary fashion in collaboration with musicians, actors, visual artists, storytellers, and writers in order to create pieces that inspire and bring about change.

For this weekend Mayta Fusion Dance will present a work in progress solo work inspired by the music of Thelonious Monk and in collaboration with a visual artist Emilie Houssart.

The cost is free.
