MorDance has several new ballets in the process of being created, and we've decided to preview them in this exclusive one night showing! This exciting event will give audience members a look at what is to come for our fifth anniversary season and the chance to view dance from an inside perspective.

You will have the opportunity to hear artistic director Morgan McEwen, and other collaborating artists, discuss their thought processes, inspirations, and narratives behind these new works. This intimate evening will treat audiences to a unique selection of works, viewed from a perspective unlike any other. We hope you come out to step into the work with us!

Mingle with the dancers and collaborating artists afterwards over a glass of wine during our reception.
