Fly-by-Night Dance Theater announces their 10th NYC Aerial Dance Festival - presenting Aerial Dance as Concert Dance in works that push the boundaries of both. The performance will include dancers using various apparatus: silks, lyra, harness, trapeze and span set. The evening will open with a ceremony led by Akim Funk Buddha, the critically acclaimed performance artist who draws upon a full spectrum of cultural traditions and disciplines, including rhyming, beat-boxing, mouth and body percussion, storytelling, break-dancing, Mongolian throat-singing, Indonesian monkey chants, body-balancing, martial arts, tap, and circus arts.
