Experience a Thousand Year Old Japanese Folk Tradition!

Japanese Folk Dance Institute of NY (JFDINY) is thrilled to introduce Nameshida Onikenbai: Demon Sword Dance, performed by Iwate, Japan's Nameshida Onikenbai, one of only two Onikenbai traditions recognized as a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage.

This thousand year old folk tradition features Oni (Demon) masked dancers acrobatically striding and leaping with swords and fans. The ensemble will showcase their full repertoire, including the exclusive "Sanninkago" performance. This exclusive occasion marks Nameshida Onikenbai's first and only appearance in the U.S.

The night will culminate with additional folk traditions from around Japan, presented by Minbuza of JFDINY.

Tickets: $27 for Adults, $17 for Students, Children, and Seniors (Plus $3 Facility Fee)

Supported by: The JCC Fund, JEC Fund, the Mitsui Sumitomo Cultural Foundation, and NYC Department of Cultural Affairs in Partnership with the City Council
