New Victory Dance returns in a free, online format, inspiring kids and families to engage with NYC dance. From July 21 to August 11, 2020, New Victory will release seven video dance chapters featuring excerpted performances with introductions by the choreographers. Hosted by New Victory Teaching Artists, each video explores the artistry of a professional New York dance company or soloist through guided reflection questions and movement, encouraging viewers to try a little choreography wherever they are.

Each chapter will run approximately 20 to 25 minutes. Talk-Back videos featuring audience questions will be released on Wednesdays in August. All videos are audio-described, sign-interpreted and captioned for viewer accessibility.
