Richard Termine

Follow Alice's adventures through Wonderland as she meets some of the most beloved characters in children's literature. Presented in a vaudeville setting, this eclectic ballet draws on many different dance forms - from Irish Step Dancing to African Juba to classical ballet - all of which combine to make a highly entertaining show.

"At one point a human hand emerges from a tiny doll house and pours itself a cup of tea; we can't believe it when the house turns out to contain Alice herself. There are marvelous steps and many of Lewis Carroll's characters are engagingly captured." -THE NEW YORK TIMES
