Brooklyn Ballet's adventurous spring season Night / Life brings bold new choreography and unexpected movement dialogues to the stage.

The program features world premieres by Shannon Harkins and William Ervin, a work-in-process by Artistic Director Lynn Parkerson exploring the intersection of ballet and krump, and Chopin Dances—a striking juxtaposition of Isadora Duncan's expressive lyricism and Michel Fokine's classical refinement. With a diverse company of dancers blending ballet, contemporary dance, and street styles, Night / Life reimagines the possibilities of ballet today.
