A one day boot camp for your creative practice. Immediate Dances/PRAXISPACE LIVE is a day-long playground where you will make and move with rapid fire prompts in order to shake yourself loose from habit, stasis, and artistic apathy. Your inner critic will be asked to sit quietly in the lobby while you find spontaneity, efficiency, and that spark of joy that arrives when you let art be playful. Leave with fresh eyes, pumping blood, and some new material for your next piece!
