Starting this April, a cohort of 4 artists has the opportunity to work at MOTiVE Brooklyn on a regular basis and receive mentorship from both their cohort and mentor(s). We wanted to give artists a consistent place to imagine, dialogue and move towards a deeper understanding of their work while feeling supported by a community. Whether you have an upcoming project that you want to prepare for or an ongoing practice you want guidance on, this mentorship program offers an accountability for each individual while being supported by cohort of artists.

Mentors will be MOTiVE co-Directors, Meredith Glisson and Lilach Orenstein for this pilot mentorship program.
