Lil Aronoff Photography

Hello! I am freelance contemporary artist, dancer and mover, based in NYC. In addition to dancing, I am also a freelance photographer. Wearing both hats has given me a lot of clarity and understanding of both artforms: as a dancer, especially a freelancer, I know how important it is to document our projects and build up a portfolio of materials, but I also know that professional photos can be incredibly expensive. I would love to help out my fellow NYC dance community and offer my photography services based on your needs/schedules/vision. Of course details and pricing vary dependent on shoot location, length and type (portraits, headshots, rehearsal, concept, etc.) but I aim to work with you so we can both feel valued and happy with the outcome!

Please email me with any further inquiries/interest in discussing more specific ideas, details ,availability.
