of bones || hollye bynum premieres RELEASE, an evening length production blending live performance with six original dance films as part of The Theater at the 14th Street Y's inaugural 2015-2016 Dance Series. RELEASE is the first production from of bones || hollye bynum to include both filmed and staged contemporary dance in one full evening-length performance. RELEASE explores the nature of letting go and moving forward. Artistic Director and choreographer, Hollye Bynum, draws from her personal experiences to create raw, honest, accessible inquiries of the human experience through movement. Her choreography transmits an emotionally charged quality, which seamlessly provokes audience members to feel, to inhabit their bodies with greater depth, and to open their senses to living in the immediate present. In collaboration with Brooklyn-based fashion magazine and production company, Beautiful Savage, as well as cinematographer, Kyle Crichton; RELEASE integrates six new dance films and eight stage pieces with original music composition by Padi Hashemian. A curated dance-film screening will culminate the residency, featuring films by local and international artists. Tickets: $20 pre-sale; $25 at door; film screening $15.
