Rags Without Borders MENA Dance Festival will host its sixth online edition from August 26th, 2022 until August 28th, 2022: bridging Arab and non-Arab audiences, and building international understanding through the cultural dances of the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) with dance workshops with mini lectures, a dance show, and a lecture-presentation on the folk dances of Egypt.

Our inspiring instructors and lecturers:

Zahra Mujunen (Morocco) teaching Moroccan guedra and sahraoui.
Hoda Ibrahim (Egypt) teaching Egyptian awalim with a veil and gawazee saidi with a stick.
Rochdi Belgasmi (Tunisia) teaching various traditional dance movements from Tunisia.
Dr. Tamer Yehia Aziz (Egypt) presenting a lecture on the folk and traditional dances of Egypt.

Recorded Zoom dance workshops will be available for participants to view as well.

Pricing:

A dance show, presenting a plethora of cultural dances from the MENA region with guest dance artists. Show tickets: senior and student discount: $10-regular admission: $20.
Full package (senior and student discount: $150; full price: $200) includes five dance workshops with short lectures, a dance show, a dance performance of your choice during the show, and a lecture-presentation.
Individual workshops ($50 each) are available as well.

Registration is now available on www.torkomada.weebly.com
