Learn from one of today's most celebrated choreographers as he takes his unique dance storytelling from the stage to the Ailey studios! Ron K Brown has established his personal language that's richly communicative and spiritually refreshing.

This workshop fuses modern dance technique with West African movements including traditional and social dance forms from US, Senegal, Cuba and Ivory Coast to develop your versatility and ability to move from one style to the next. This workshop is designed for intergenerational participants with a wide range to no dance experience.
