

Monday, March 4, 2019

Songs of Bukovina: A Conversation with Alexei Ratmansky

Company: The Center for Ballet and the Arts at New York University
Venue: David Rubenstein Atrium at Lincoln Center
Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Alexei Ratmansky. Photo by Fabrizio Ferri.

In celebration of his 10th anniversary as Artist in Residence at American Ballet Theatre, Alexei Ratmansky joins scholars and artists in a special conversation that situates his recent work, Songs of Bukovina, within its cultural and political contexts.

Alexei Ratmansky, ABT Artist in Residence

Michael Beckerman, Carroll and Milton Petrie Collegiate Professor of Music at New York University

Jennifer Homans, Founder and Director, The Center for Ballet and the Arts at New York University

Christine Shevchenko, Principal Dancer, American Ballet Theatre

Larry Wolff, Professor of History and Director, Center for European and Mediterranean Studies at New York University

Free. No tickets required. Seating begins at 6:00pm and is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Presented in collaboration with American Ballet Theatre, Lincoln Center, and NYU's Remarque Institute.

The Center for Ballet and the Arts at New York University
61 W 62nd Street
New York, NY, 10023
<https://balletcenter.nyu.edu/events/songs-of-bukovina/>

Schedule
March 4, 2019: 7:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing