Choreographer Molissa Fenley's celebrated solo work, "State of Darkness," finds new life at The Joyce Theater this fall, performed by a new generation of New York's acclaimed dancers. Our audiences are virtually invited to watch this unique collection of solo performances of Fenley's tour de force work, broadcast live each weekend (Oct 24-Nov 1) from The Joyce stage.

Adapting her creative process to our emergent world of social distance, Fenley restaged her solo individually with seven dancers: 2020 Juilliard grad Jared Brown; Lloyd Knight of Martha Graham Dance Company; Sara Mearns of the New York City Ballet; Shamel Pitts, former Batsheva Dance Company member; Annique Roberts of Ronald K. Brown/EVIDENCE; Cassandra Trenary of American Ballet Theatre; and Michael Trusnovec of Paul Taylor American Dance Company.

Tickets start at $12 per household. Livestreamed performances will be available for viewing until November 7, 2020.
