Abrons Art Center, Studio G05

The artists driving this new Movement Research initiative open their current conversations to a wider audience, sharing thoughts on the Council's mission and their experiences as artists of color within Movement Research's programs. In support of accountability efforts underway within Movement Research and working towards two-way transparency, the Council invites the concerns of the community around cultural diversity, equity, and sustainable structural integration into the space.

With niv Acosta, Jaamil Olawale Kosoko, Alicia Ohs, Lisa Parra, Marya Wethers and Tara Aisha Willis

Studies Projects are a series of artist-instigated panel discussions, roundtables, performances and/or other formats that engage issues of aesthetics, philosophy and social politics relevant to the dance and performance community.

All Studies Project events are free and open to the public.
