One of The New York Times' "Biggest Breakout Stars of 2019", Ayodele Casel, "a tap dancer of fine-grained musicianship" (The New Yorker), has been named a 2019-2020 fellow at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study at Harvard University where she will be writing her next theatrical work. Ayodele, a down to earth storyteller, creates work that is rooted in the expression of identity, culture, language, and communication.
