Cathy Weis Projects announces thirteen events between September 21 and December 14 in its new, ongoing series Sundays on Broadway. The series features film screenings, performances, parties, and all manner of gatherings on Sunday evenings. All events are free and open to the public and take place at 8pm.

The series features five film screenings and discussions, organized by Julie Martin on the 9 Evenings: Theater and Engineering performances held at the 69th Regiment Armory in New York City in October 1966. Selected films include: Yvonne Rainer's Carriage Discreteness, September 21; Steve Paxton's Physical Things, September 28; Robert Whitman's Two Holes of Water – 3, October 5; Alex Hay's Grass Field, November 30; and Lucinda Childs' Vehicle, December 7.

Sundays on Broadway will also include performances and work-in-progress showings. Cathy Weis presents three evenings of "haikus" on October 12, November 16, and December 14. Weis also shares a program with longtime collaborators Jennifer Miller (October 26), Vicky Shick (November 2), and Jon Kinzel (November 9), in which each artist presents a work in development followed by a structured improvisation for both artists.
