Jonathan Gonzalez

Cathy Weis Projects will present four Sundays on Broadway events this spring. Co-curated by Cathy Weis and Martita Abril, the evenings will feature new and in-progress works by visionary artists.

Founded by choreographer and video artist Cathy Weis in spring 2014, the one-night-only events bring together both luminaries and newcomers of downtown performance, creating a space for artists to present and discuss their work and processes with audiences in the intimate setting of Weis's SoHo studio. Since its inception, Sundays on Broadway has presented the work of more than 180 choreographers, filmmakers, performers, musicians, and visual artists.

The event on May 25 features performances by Jonathan González, Keith Hennessy & Ishmael Houston-Jones, and No Fascist String Band led by Jennifer Miller.

Jonathan Gonzalez's choreographic study is entitled Swerve and explores choreographies of swerving – def: to make an abrupt change in direction against an incoming obstacle – to perform with an embodied attention to what shifts, becomes possible, and decays in the face of potential harm.

Keith Hennessy and Ishmael Houston-Jones will present an excerpt of their ever-evolving improvised duet, CLOSER.

Jennifer Miller will present a new dance piece from her 2025 suite The Concussion Dances and will also be debuting the new Queer Anti-Fascist String Band – Xylocarp. Dancers: David Guzman and Zo Williams. Musicians: Pher, Jules Skloot, and Mary Feaster.
