Dust off your dancing shoes for the 6th Annual Swamp in the City: A Cajun & Creole Music Festival! May 18-21, 2023 in Red Hook, Brooklyn.

Swamp in the City is NYC's one-and-only Cajun & Creole music festival that celebrates the vibrant musical, cultural and culinary heritage unique to Southwest Louisiana. The open-air music festival takes place May 18-21, 2023 and will feature world-class Louisiana dancehall bands, dance lessons, Cajun jam sessions, musical workshops led by Swamp in the City artists, Cajun/Creole-inspired food vendors, a Sunday family dance (bring the kids), sweeping views of the Statue of Liberty, and a jam-packed weekend of fun all along the beautiful Red Hook waterfront. The festival kicks off on Thursday, May 18th aboard the historic Waterfront Museum & Barge (290 Conover St., Brooklyn) and continues Friday-Sunday at Strong Rope Brewery (185 Van Dyke St., Brooklyn).

This year's all-star lineup includes The Revelers, Curley Taylor & Zydeco Trouble, Couillon Connection, Roddie Romero, Jesse Lege, Joel Savoy, Blake Miller, Kelli Jones, Wilson Savoy, Rose & the Bros, Jimmy Breaux, The Old Fashioned Aces, Amelia Biere, Kevin Wimmer, Chas Justus, Chris Stafford, Jo Vidrine, Glenn Fields, Colin Gould and more.
