The American Tap Dance Foundation's Tap Teacher Training Program provides the essential skills to teach rhythm tap to children, teens and adults. This comprehensive curriculum gives a solid and progressive foundation for beginning through advanced level tap dance teaching.

2017 Training includes:

- 45+ hours of class time with expert faculty
- Rhythm tap technique
- Copasetic Canon repertory
- Rhythm tap pedagogy
- Jazz music concepts
- Live music accompaniment
- Tap composition and improvisation
- Tap history
- Mentored independent work
- Certificate issued by the American Tap Dance Foundation
- Scholarships are available

Our graduates rave:

- "Amazing amount of useful information"*
- "I felt empowered, validated and on the right track"*
- "The best tap dance week of my life"*
- "Terrific, imaginative-tons of brilliant ideas"*

The American Tap Dance Foundation has been a leader in tap artistry and education for thirty years. Our Tap Teacher Training Certificate Program offers an approach to teaching rhythm tap based in the classic tap repertory of the Copasetics, the famed ensemble of rhythm tap stars from the Golden Age of Tap. Combined with the artistic vision and teachings of Brenda Bufalino, the Copasetic Canon Curriculum has been adapted into a clear and technically solid approach to teaching youth, teen and adult students at the American Tap Dance Center in New York. The Curriculum is now available to all tap teachers--and to advanced tap dancers who want to gain teaching skills.
