The Alchemist's Veil

Company: Maureen Fleming
Venue: La MaMa
Location: New York, NY

Maureen Fleming

La MaMa presents Guggenheim dance artist Maureen Fleming in the World Premiere of THE ALCHEMIST'S VEIL, a celebration of her 70th birthday and 35 years since she made her 1989 La MaMa debut. Created, choreographed, and performed by Fleming, this unique production features brilliant lighting and geometric moving sculptures by Christopher Odo and a sound design by Brett Jarvis with hypnotic live piano by Bruce Brubaker and violinist Tim Fain on film performing music by Philip Glass and Brian Eno.

In THE ALCHEMIST'S VEIL, Maureen Fleming combines surreal movement poetry and mesmerizing visuals inspired by the paintings of American artist Georgia O'Keeffe in a sensual journey crystallizing mystical femininity across generations. Moving beyond beauty to provide an ultimately redemptive response to suffering, the capacity for endurance and healing, for self-creation and self-destruction, THE ALCHEMIST'S VEIL is a glorious assertion of femininity.
