Dance Visions NY presents The Body Resilient: Visions of Art for Healing, outdoors at Cedarmere, the summer home of 'America's first poet' and journalist William Cullen Bryant, in collaboration with the Friends of Cedarmere. It features rarely seen, timely heroic and dramatic repertory of Isadora Duncan as well as new expressive dance works, many with live music. The concert addresses pain and healing, despair and hope, and challenges both personal and global in these unsettled times. This concert is in honor of Isadora Duncan master, Adrienne Ramm.

With company dancers: Louisa Armstrong-Harrison, Tyler Brunson, Emily Butera, Abby Dias, Patrec Alexander Jones-Brown, Beth Jucovy, Anne Parichon, Lexi Sim, Susan Steinman.

and musicians Farah Chandu & Willow Women's Choir and Rose Gunter, Staurt Waters & Peter Greco.

Art show curated by local visual art master Marc Josloff, in the Cedarmere Mill at 4 pm, prior to the concert along with water mill demonstrations.

This event is supported by Long Island Grants for the Arts through funds provided by the office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature, and administered by The Huntington Arts Council. The event is also supported by a grant from the Maliaka Amon and Anthony Bregman Fund.
