

March, 1-2, 2025

The Dying Of Swan Lake

Company: American Liberty Ballet
Venue: The Theatre At St. Jean
Location: New York City, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Jay Krempa

ALB artist Allan McCormick has teamed up with director Valerie Mae Browne to create a new version of Swan Lake for American Liberty Ballet. Set as a two act ballet, this version combines the delicate beauty of ballet's dearest tradition, with harsher tones brought on by our sadness for the loss of man's relationship with nature. Blending elements of classical and contemporary ideas and technique this ballet will both satisfy the traditionalist and compel the inquisitive mind.

This evening will include an introductory work "A Dance Under the Sun" set to Maurice Ravel's Bolero. Concept and designs by critically acclaimed visual artist Anna Khachatryan with choreography by Valerie Mae Browne. Anna is well known for simultaneously shocking and bedazzling her viewers and this collaborative piece is no different. ALB's version of Bolero features themes from out of this world, which will burn a permanent place in the mind.

Join us at the Theater of St Jeans on 76th Street and Lexington Ave in Manhattan.

Dates:

March 1st: 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm

March 2nd: 3:00 pm

$59 General Admission; $49 Seniors/Students/Children Under 10

American Liberty Ballet
150 East 76th St Apt 1F
New York City, NY, 10021
6196550056
<https://www.ticketleap.events/tickets/american-liberty-ballet/the-dying-of-swan-lake>

Schedule
March 1, 2025: 3:00pm, 7:00pm
March 2, 2025: 3:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing