The Kinect is a celebration of music, dance, & community. We will be returning for another night of fun between creatives in New York City. We love supporting local artists and this time around, we are featuring singer, songwriter and dancer Ali Schwartz in celebration of her newest song and music video release, "Under My Bed".

ALL CREATIVES ARE WELCOME. Join us and meet like-minded individuals at this community-centric event—you never know, you could kinect (get it?!) with your next creative partner! Dancers meet singers, singers meet songwriters, musicians meet content creators, and beyond!

The event will include:

An intimate live performance by featured artist Ali Schwartz accompanied by her talented producer, artist and singer Rob G

Beginner-level dance routine taught and choreographed by Anna Cuffari (all levels welcome!)

Professional videographer capturing content throughout the night

Light refreshments and giveaways

Networking with NYC creatives!

(Note: We will be following CDC and NY state guidelines, all attendees must be vaccinated as this is an indoor event)
