Alpha Omega Theatrical Dance Company

Theatre Dance @theAO Studio (Alpha Omega Theatrical Dance Company) with Vic DiMonda is every Thursday from 1 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. This thoroughly enjoyable class will have you feeling confident the very next time you hit that audition scene. Good music, solid technique and real theatre choreography is the cornerstone of this class. Don't be shy...you can't be...it's THEATRE!

Mr. DiMonda currently serves as the Associate Producing Director for the John W. Engeman Theater at Northport, Long Island's only year round Equity theater, where he directed and choreographed their inaugural production of Smokey Joe's Café. Mr. DiMonda is also a faculty member of The Ailey School and The Ailey Extension. He founded and served as Artistic Director for the Harkness Dance Center's Tap Team and has also been a faculty member of The American Academy of Dramatic Arts and an artist in residence for the Metropolitan Opera Guild where he taught the Creating Original Opera program.

As an accomplished SDC Stage Director, Choreographer and Fight Choreographer Mr. DiMonda's work has taken him throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central America, Europe and The Far East. He has performed, directed and choreographed in every imaginable venue and has created a host of original productions, set Broadway choreography as well as original works.

Mr. DiMonda has been a teacher of professional dancers for over 15 years and realized that many actors have limited facility with their physical instrument and many dancers have limited access to their emotional-life when on stage. As both a classically trained actor and an accomplished dancer, he has created techniques that blend the two art forms in ways that are rarely seen in the industry or in the classroom.
