Triskelion Arts is pleased to present Dance-ify That!, a dance/comedy game show serving as the inaugural live and in-the-flesh version of Billy Schultz's video project, Dance Move Daily.

Dance-ify That! is an arousing tournament in which eight undaunted dance duos will have three minutes to create choreography based on viral and ridiculous pop culture videos. We put the creative process in a pressure cooker and shine an entertaining light on how dancers work. It's up to you and a panel of nearly famous judges (comedy-folk) to determine who will reign supreme as the distinguished champions. Visit www.youtube.com/user/dancemovedaily for a taste.
