Triskelion Arts is pleased to present Megan Bascom & Dancers' new work, ON, this Spring in the Muriel Schulman Theater. ON sets the stage in the present, a time when we find ourselves engaged and constantly stimulated. Information overload is an undeniable reality and our device-heavy habits have drastically shifted our social dynamics. Boredom, down-time, and mind-wandering have become lost experiences. "Self" is a word that now holds a double meaning; self and digital self. ON delivers an intimate look at the behaviors, spaces, and platforms with which we occupy ourselves and engage with others in our digitalized life.
