Megan Williams Dance Projects (MWDP) will give the World Premiere of Visible, an intergenerational dance choreographed by Megan Williams, June 5, 6, and 7, 2025, 7:30pm, at Danspace Project Off -Season in New York City.

Visible is set to Alexander Scriabin's Piano Preludes, performed live by Isabelle O'Connell, and original music performed live by Tristan Kasten-Krause from his 2021 album Potential Landscapes. Williams' choreography for Visible will explore the tensions between our seen and unseen identities. Our ever evolving and dissolving roles in society as family members, partners, care givers, friends, and artists shape and conceal who we are, revealing disparate and common connections.

Performers for Visible are Janet Charleston, Emily Marie Pope, Clarence Brooks, Réka Echerer, Mary Lyn Graves, Robert Mark Burke, Chelsea Enjer Hecht, Esmé Boyce, Courtney Lopes, Will Noling, and Megan Williams. Musicians include Kasten-Krause (bass), O'Connell (piano), Brendon Randall-Myers (guitar) and Zosha Warpeha (Hardanger fiddle).
