Join us for an evening of gallery hopping and rooftop views on Thursday May 20th. We will have an exclusive, private guided tour of the Chashama lobby exhibitions, followed by drinks & snacks at the beautiful Ophelia Rooftop.

Chashama is a non-profit organization dedicated to giving artists work and presentation spaces, as well as providing free art workshops in under served communities. Currently, they present 150 events a year, have workspace for 120 artists, and have developed 80 workshops in under served communities.

This tour, created exclusively for Women of Culture and led by Deputy Director Hayley Ferber, will explore five of Chashama's current exhibits, all displayed in the beautiful lobbies of midtown area office buildings.

We will learn more about each of the six artists as well as how the shows were coordinated and curated. Chashama's lobby program seeks out emerging and established artists with large scale abstract work. The artists featured are Megan Olson, Sasha Vom Dorp, Andrew Hockenberry, John Black and Mike Childs.
