Where Medicine and The Arts Meet

Laura will bring the "Song of the 13 Ghost Points" alive through instruction and a 6 hour treatment. Willing participants will be woven into this ancient choreography, where the dancer works inside of the shaping of the Tao. This Song, hidden within the Taoist tradition of medicine, responds to the deepest struggles that Life gives, sounding to patient and practitioner, artist and audience simultaneously, to vanquish the power of Ghosts, all that haunts and holds humans captive to Suffering. To cultivate and remember the mandate of physicians and artists. Remembering Art as a call to participate in the sacred dialogue of life.
