Young Dancemakers Company (Jessica Gaynor, Artistic Director; William Catanzaro, Music Director), a tuition-free dance ensemble of NYC public high school students, proudly presents its 30th anniversary season, touring July 30–August 7, 2025. Guided by acclaimed professionals, students will premiere original choreography developed during an intensive summer program, alongside repertory from the award-winning A.I.M by Kyle Abraham. Guest teaching artists include Catherine Kirk and Donovan Reed (A.I.M), Arielle Rosales (Flamenco Vivo), Noele Phillips (West African), and Bridgman|Packer Dance (partnering). Free performances will be held across four NYC boroughs, starting at Fieldston School (Bronx) and concluding at The Ailey Citigroup Theater (Manhattan). All performances are free and open to the public. Reservations are required. To reserve tickets, visit bit.ly/ydcevents. For group sales, email youngdancemakers@gmail.com.
