Kimberly Bartosik

L'Alliance New York announces upcoming performances of Kimberly Bartosik's bLUr, set for Friday, January 9, 2026 at 9PM and Monday, January 12, 2026 at 7PM at Le Skyroom, L'Alliance New York, 22 E. 60th Street, 8th Floor, NYC. Tickets start at $15 and can be purchased here.

Back after its stunning, sold-out world premiere as part of the 2025 Crossing The Line Festival, co-presented at New York Live Arts, choreographer Kimberly Bartosik's bLUr comes to L'Alliance New York as part of New York Live Arts' Live Artery performance festival. Built in cycles of desire and fierce compassion, bLUr exists within a landscape of physical and emotional crisis. Five performers of exquisite humanity navigate urgent interventions as time warps and haunts, reminding us of our fragility, power, and need to care for and rescue one another.

Run Time: 50 minutes

bLUr is co-commissioned by L'Alliance New York's Crossing the Line Festival and by ADF/American Dance Festival with support from the Doris Duke/SHS Foundations Award for New Works. These performances of bLUr are co-presented by L'Alliance New York and Live Artery | New York Live Arts. The work is also made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts' National Dance Project, with lead funding from the Doris Duke Foundation and The Mellon Foundation. General Operating Support was made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts' National Dance Project with funding from the Doris Duke Foundation. bLUr is also made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature and with Project Support from The Harkness Foundation for Dance. The creation of the bLUr Community Engagement Workshop, made possible through NDP, was also developed with support from the 92Y Harkness Dance Center and in collaboration with Recanti-Caplan teen scholars. bLUr was developed in residency at Marble House Project, the Ragdale Foundation, and as an Artist in Residency at Bates Dance Festival. bLUr is also supported through the generosity of individual donors, with major support by John Robinson.

The dynamic Live Artery festival at New York Live Arts is one of NYC's most attended dance-specific platforms during the annual presenter conference season, featuring resident commissioned artists and curated guests. New York Live Arts, guided by the leadership of visionary artist Bill T. Jones, collaborates with boundary pushing artists, advocates for their vision, and fortifies a creative future.

L'Alliance New York's programs are made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature.

About L'Alliance New York

As an independent, not-for-profit organization, L'Alliance is committed to providing members and students with engaging French language classes and audacious multi-disciplinary programming that celebrates the diversity of francophone cultures and creativity around the world.

A welcoming and inclusive community for all ages and backgrounds, L'Alliance New York cultivates a space where people can meet, learn, explore the richness of heritage, and share discoveries. They strive to amplify voices and build bridges from the entire francophone world to New York and beyond.

L'Alliance New York's history began in 1898 when the Alliance Française established a chapter here in New York City. In 1911, francophile New Yorker MacDougal Hawkes founded the Museum of French Art, French Institute, and opened a space in 1925 inside a beautiful Beaux-Arts building at 22 East 60th Street, where L'Alliance still operates. In 1971, the two institutions combined to create the French Institute Alliance Française, now known as L'Alliance New York.

As a product of this union, L'Alliance is infused with the spirit of the original French Institute. Designed to serve as a museum, library, and intellectual and social club for New York's francophone community, the French Institute is a place where all are welcome – a place of community, culture, support, and festivity.
