About the Event

INTER-GRANT FEST

*An annual platform at Arts On Site celebrating the voices of international artists who have successfully navigated the US immigration process.

*A platform where international freelance artists are supported to create and share their works without hazardous application processes

*Inter-grant Festival comes from the words "international" and "immigrant", combined to play words that are juxtaposed to the United States in various landscapes. Dancemaker Ching-I Chang, originally from Taiwan, created the festival after navigating 7 different visa applications and 20 years of dance-art making in the United States.
