mind eraser // a three day process orientated text- and movementworkshop

pre-recorded audio files taken from different sources are the point of initiation in this workshop. we will interpret the files and through task experiments, find performative possibilities. how is the message altered when movement becomes a second layer? through re-organization? through looping? the workshop is unbiased and it uses and connects various tools. for anyone who likes improvisation and is interested in interdisciplinary formats. Evangelos Poulinas will teach a short warm up.

this workshop is not an audition. we hold our audition one week later in berlin. if Johannes is interested he might invite some people for the callbacks to kassel.

this workshop is by invitation only (the group is limited to around 15 participants)
