Gibney Dance and Dance/NYC have jointly developed Sorry I Missed Your Show! as a "second chance" to view works by both emerging and established choreographers, as well as a forum for artists and their audiences to revisit them from fresh perspectives. Video screenings will be followed by thoughtful discussions and reconsiderations led by some of the great minds of the contemporary dance world.

Our next SIMYS! will feature THE WIZ by Nicholas Leichter Dance.

Our post-screening discussion will be moderated by Brian McCormick.
