Sorry I Missed Your Show! presents SUPERGABRIELA choreographed by Cosmin Manolescu.

Cosmin Manolescu is a Romanian choreographer and director of the Gabriela Tudor Foundation & Serial Paradise Company in Bucharest. In 1997, together with Gabriela Tudor, he created the Project DCM Foundation, which played an important role in the development of contemporary dance in Romania. Since then, they have collaborated on several international dance projects and performances which received important awards. Between 2003 and 2008 Cosmin's artistic work was successfully presented at important festivals and venues in Europe and in the US. He is currently working on a new performance-installation "I Am Myself" to be premiered in Summer 2011.

Our post-screening discussion will be moderated by Ursula Eagly.

Saturday, November 6 at 4:30 pm
