This event has already occurred.

What do President Obama, Tim Gunn, Sarah Silverman, the employees of Facebook and the New York City dance community have in common? As of June 5 they'll all have filmed It Gets Better videos offering hope to LGBT youth.

On Tuesday, June 5, 2012, join friends and colleagues in recording messages of encouragement and inspiration for a special It Gets Better video from the NYC dance community. (Video will air the week of June 25.)

The event took place at the Gibney Dance Center and was free and open to any member of the dance community.

Take part in this epic gathering -- record your video, enjoy the refreshments, and catch up with your cool dance colleagues before summer is in full swing.

Event and video production assistance provided by #SKYNOVA, Dance/NYC, Edwards & Skybetter | Change Agency, Fractured Atlas, Gibney Dance Center, JenEd Productions, and Jordan Isadore.
