2. This week the U.S. Supreme Court will begin work on two court cases on the Affordable Care Act. They will make a decision on the cases next year that will decide if the Affordable Care Act is legal and can stay a law, or if it is illegal and must change. Learn more at The New York Times.

NEW YORK STATE

1. The NY State Senate needs to know about the dance sector! Following the NY State Senate's Roundtable on COVID's Impact on Arts and Culture, NY cultural organizations are invited to submit written testimony on the challenges arts and culture are facing. Submit statements by November 18th.
2. New Yorkers can call the State's mental health hotline at 1-844-863-9314 for free emotional support, consultations & referrals to a provider or visit the Office of Mental Health for resources. New Yorkers can't underestimate the strain of COVID fatigue.

NEW YORK CITY

1. Use #NYCOpenCulture on social media to share your stories of how the Coronavirus Pandemic is impacting individual artists, organizations and the dance sector. Engage your representatives in the conversation to make them aware of the hardships the dance community is facing.
2. For the ongoing Coronavirus Dance Impact Study, Dance/NYC is tracking studio & company closures to gain a better understanding of the financial impact the pandemic is taking on the dance sector. This data will be used to better document this historic time and to be able to advocate for aid to policy makers. Please email any closures that you know of in the dance community to research@dance.nyc. You do not need to be in charge of the organization to send a notification as Dance/NYC works to compile a list of closures.
