1. A petition to congratulate President Biden and Vice President Harris and urge them to boldly support the arts has been sent to the White House. This petition letter includes specific recommendations including creating a Presidential Arts and Culture Advisor, increasing funding to National Endowment for Arts, supporting the arts in COVID-19 relief plus more. Download a PDF of the full petition letter and list of signatories
2. National Endowment for the Arts \(NEA\) announces Biden-Harris appointees. They are Chief of Staff Ra Joy, White House Liaison and Senior Advisor to the Chief of Staff Jennifer (Jenn) Chang, Director of Strategic Communications and Public Affairs Sonia Chala Tower, and Director of Congressional Affairs Ben Kessler.
3. Dance/USA announced a free new online resource to help artists and arts organizations document and preserve the record of the dance field's experiences and response to the COVID-19 pandemic. This resource offers suggestions for how artists and arts organizations can document the effects of and responses to the pandemic, as well as information about national or regional efforts to collect archives of the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. Join the US Department of Arts and Culture (USDAC), in partnership with MassCreative and The Theater Offensive for the 2021 People's State of the Union to show Arts are Essential! Download the toolkit, then visit the USDAC website, where you can participate in trainings, read FAQs, and get more information on how to participate in the digital story circle. USDAC is collecting and sharing stories from across the country, if you share your story on Instagram or Twitter, be sure to use one of the following hashtags: #PSOTU2021 #PeoplesStateOfTheUnion2021 #ArtsAreEssential #ArtKeepsUsSafe
5. The House and Senate have passed a budget resolution, a legislative tool to quickly deliver COVID-19 relief. The next step is for the committees to turn components of the Biden Administration's American Rescue Plan into legislative language that will become the budget reconciliation bill that is expected to be debated in early to mid-March. Separately, last week a group of Senate Republicans released an alternative proposal for COVID-19 relief.
6. Help focus the attention of lawmakers on the needs of nonprofits by signing your organization onto a new nonprofit letter calling for a package of solutions tailored to the needs and realities of nonprofits serving the public good. The letter calls for nonprofit-specific grants and forgivable loans for nonprofits of all sizes, and increase and extension of charitable giving incentives, full coverage of unemployment costs of reimbursing (self-insured) employers, and financial aid to state and local governments.
