Weekly Advocacy Alert, April 14: A Moment for Grief and Solidarity

Dance/NYC holds space to mourn the death of Daunte Wright and to acknowledge the continuing violence against Black people at the hands of law enforcement caused by white supremacy. As a team of arts workers we seek to ensure the lives and vitality of Black people and Black culture as an ongoing commitment outside of and during crisis and to work in support of justice in New York City and beyond.

Ways to support Daunte Wright's family:

- Donate to a GoFundMe to cover funeral costs and family expenses created by Wright's aunt Kelly Bryant.
- Donate directly via this information coordinated by Holistic Heaux for the mother of Daunte's son.
- Participate in a protest, march or vigil. Information compiled via @justiceforgeorgenyc.
- Support the Brooklyn Center small businesses via GoFundMe organized by MN Teen Activists.

Ways to be in ongoing solidarity:

- Support Black membership based organizations such as Dance/NYC's Justice, Equity and Inclusion Partners: International Association of Blacks in Dance, and Women of Color in the Arts.
- Support Black-led Dance/Arts Orgs from this independently compiled list.
- Visit the racial justice resources page for more knowledge, information and steps you can take.

Opening of the Broadway Vaccination Site for Arts And Cultural Workers
