dance/NYC ®

NEWS

Search News   🔍

September 4, 2014
Misty Copeland is a New Yorker for Dance
"I Think It's Important for People to See a Brown Ballerina" Says Misty Copeland...

___

June 25, 2014
NYC Celebrates Dance in Staten Island
"New Yorkers for Dance" Campaign Spotlights Local Vibrancy...

___

April 22, 2014
Have You Seen the Dance/NYC Events Page?
Dance/NYC has expanded the online footprint for dance in the metropolitan New York City area with an all-new DanceNYC.org and expanded events page....

___

April 15, 2014
CUNY Launches Dance Program To Support New York City's Dance Companies and Choreographers
Starting this summer, 11 CUNY campuses in all five boroughs will host a total of 12 to 14 residencies, which will range from rehearsals only to larger residencies that may include master classes, open rehearsals, lecture- demonstrations and performances....

___

April 1, 2014
Department of Cultural Affairs Announces Community Arts Leadership
The Department of Cultural Affairs is pleased to announce the second iteration of Community Arts Leadership, managed by the Community Arts Development Program (CADP)....

___

March 25, 2014
Briefing for Cultural Organizations: Out-of-School Time Middle School Expansion
DYCD will expand its Out-of-School Time (OST) initiative, which supports students in grades K-12 with a mix of academic, recreational and cultural activities after school. This decision stems from Mayor de Bassio's committment to increase middle school students' access to after school programs....

___

March 20, 2014
Hey, NYC: Check Out the New DanceNYC.org
Today, Dance/NYC expands the online footprint for dance in the metropolitan New York City area with an all-new DanceNYC.org....

___

March 13, 2014
Be a New Yorker for Dance REGISTRATION CLOSED
This year, we are opening the campaign up to include statements on why dance matters to legislative districts in all five boroughs to make localized cases for investment and engagement. ...

___